“We are not the insignificant dots in the Universe, we are the Universe.”

Realization of truth will not happen in void, but will begin with rituals.

It is very necessary to accept that we as humans have to learn to balance our life. This we can do from experience learning which takes time and there is a place for error in that. Another way is to learn from the great ideals that have lived the similar life or have shown us the path to balance our life.

The three areas of our life that have to be balanced are – Individual, Family and Society. There is always a tussle between the trio and therefore, we face the trilemma.

At such time, we need to learn from the ideals who have mastered in those areas. And those are – Shiva, Rama and Krishna.

Below are the qualities of the trio, list wise.

We have discussed about each of the qualities and discussed how we can learn from them in very practical way.

In Individual section of our life we need Individual Perfection:

1. Mental Development

- Sarvagyani (सर्वज्ञानी) – Knowing all things
- Gyana-netra – (ज्ञाननेत्र)
- Chandrashekhar – Gyanopasana (ज्ञानोपासना)
- Bhikshapatra – (भिक्षुपात्र) Totally detached to worldly objects
- Bhasma (भस्म)– Ignorance has been burnt for the truth to come into light

2. Social Development

- Tandav (तांडव) – The social changes
- Pashupati (पशुपति) – The natural affection.
- Ardhanarishwara (अर्धनारिश्वर) – The social Equality.

3. Spiritual Development

- Dhyan (ध्यान)
- Avasthatrayi (अवस्थात्रयी)– Adhibhautik, Adhidaivik, Adhyatmik
- Samadhi (समाधि)

4. Emotional Development

- Lokakarunya – (लोककारुण्य) Compassion about the people
- Madajina – Having the hide of Elephant as seat – Controlling of the Mada.
- Vyaghrarina- Having tiger hide – Controlling anger.
- Arishadvarga – Kama, Krodh, Lobh, Moh, Mada, Matsarya

5. Physical Development

- Self-healer – Mrutyunjay (मृत्युंजय)
- Symbol of Self-Sufficiency
- PinakaPaani and Shuli (पिनाकपाणी, शूली)
- Vaidyanath (वैद्यनाथ) – the Nath of Doctors

In Family, we need to have some qualities so to have balance in our family.

1. Connections

- Family Consciousness
- Making brothers – Guha, Sugriva, Vibhishan.
- World as family – giving everything before leaving.
- Neither Tara not Angad felt that Ram erred.

2. Traditions

- Father's words must be honored.
- Could have lived incognito, why he didn't?
- Dashratha was going to make a palace outside Ayodhya in Jungle, why didn't Ram allowed it?

3. Support System

- Sentient about the capabilities of the people around. (पुरुष-संरज)
- Kumbhakaran knew that Ram was right.

4. Responsibilities

- Parents must not suffer and get separated! – Kausalya and Dashratha.
- Cooking for Sita.

5. Conflict Resolution

- Silently correcting parent's mistakes – both Ram and Bharat.
- Smitabhasi (spoke with smile), Mitabhasi (Spoke little), purvabhasi (Spoke first – as icebreaker), Smitapurvabhasi.
- Sent Messages to Ravana – conflict resolution before the war.

6. Family Bonding

- Strong bonds with brothers and every person of family and others.
- Working towards strengthening bonds.
- Love of Ram and Sita.

In social life, we need to have the following aspects for our development.

1. Social Understanding

- Strong, wise and selfless
- Vision for society and desire to serve the world!
- Need to change social mindset

2. Cultural Consciousness

- Indradhvaj vs Govardhan –
- Social festivals are hard to change yet he did! Against mindless ostentation
- Never fall in emotional traps!

3. Political Awareness

- Courage and not cowardice
- The teacher of Rajdharma - as an emissary.
- Sama, Dana, Bhed, Danda– even cries with Dhritarashtra?
- Sama – The rightful Share.
- Dana – Just 5 Villages, not the whole Kingdom.
- Bhed – Invoking the Dharmic Dilemma
- Danda – IF you want war, there will be war.
- Kalayavan – Muchkund
- Jarasandh – Bheem
- Even if Pandava would have died – would have made Kunti or Draupadi the queen.
- Revolt against injustice.

4. Economic Dynamism

- Where does money should be?
- Dahihandi breaking – Vocal for Local
- Who can have the best facilities!

5. Environmental Aspect

- Has always been fond of nature.
- Govardhan puja
- Cleaned the river – Kaliya naag
- Worshiping god in nature.

6. Universal Aspect

- Ram Says – Whatever happens to family, happens to me whereas, Krishna says - Whatever happens to the society will happen to me!
- Harbinger of the new values!
- Every individual must have an International view or else the person is no-one.

	Shiva	Rama	Krishna
1.	ध्यान, नर्तन helps to concentrate.	Indian society is a family business and therefore, we need to have balanced view.	Krshna-pragya – Krishna consciousness- we need to understand that Krishna has given very practical solutions to our social problems, following them is necessary so not to again get defeated like in medieval and modern times.
२.	मृत्युञ्जय , SELF HEALER – we need to have physical development	Need of children – Dasharatha – Putrakameshti – emotional flood for Ram	Courage and not cowardice
3.	SARVAGYANI – Learn from life and know everything.	Strong bonds with all – brothers, mothers etc.	The teacher of Rajdharma
4.	Auspicious (going beyond Auspicious and destruction)	Father's words must be honored	Poetic side as well as warrior side
5.	Layakaari deva – dissolves everything so that to create	Silently correcting parents' mistakes – both Ram and Bharat	Strong, wise and selfless
6.	Symbol of self-sufficiency	Working towards strengthening bonds	Karshati iti Krishna Black – a hidden mystery
7.	Undisturbed by the world	Parents should not get separated therefore, didn't allow Kausalya to come with him in forest.	Born in jail – life is a struggle – win it!
8.	Chandrashekhar – jnanopasana	Availing elite facility like pushpak vimana just for family.	Broke the jail to tell that nothing bad can bind you – to liberate from the worst.
9.	Jnananetra	Family consciousness – the story of kishkinda and angad.	He was never a king – but the true kingmaker – a Leader!
10.	Lokakarunya – compassion	The case of Guha – boatman + Sugriva + Vibhishana (making all brothers)	A vision for society and desire to serve the world! He lived without parents.

11.	Avasthatray- adhibhuta, adhidaivik, adhyatmik	Could have lived incognito in another city. But why he didn't?	Even if Pandava had died, Krishna would have made – Kunti or Draupadi the queen for the sake of truth.
12.	Bhikshapatra- totally detached	Dashratha hastily planned for making a mansion in forest.	Might not be a great father, but a great leader!
13.	Gajajina – elephant hide a symbol of intoxication (mada)	The love between Rama and Sita	Whatever happens to the society- will happen to me!
14.	Vyaghrajina- tiger hide (skin) – symbol of anger	Cooking by Rama for Sita. – Daily chores	Life should be like a tree – paropkaar for the welfare of the society
15.	Bhasma – ignorance has been burnt to bring the truth in front.	World as family – giving everything to the people before going to forest	He tried to find the common ground between all the spheres of the society.
16.	Arisadvarga – kama, krodh, lobh, moha, mada, matsarya	Family consciousness	Indradhvaja vs Govardhan Social festivals are hard to change yet he did! Against mindless ostentation
17.	Pratyakshavairi and apratyakshavairi	Smitabhasi (spoke with smile), Mitabhasi (Spoke little), purvabhasi (Spoke first – as icebreaker), Smitapurvabhasi	Changing social mindset is necessary!
18.	Samadhi	Sentient about the capabilities of the people around him.	Revolt against injustice
19.	Ardhanarishwara-	Purush-saranjna – who knows the capabilities of the people around him.	Kamsa – jarasandha and the short memory of the people. How a leader must be at such times?
20.	Pashupati	Customs and rituals	Comparison of how life have been to krshna and karna. But both took that challenge differently
21.	Asthamurtitattva	Neither Tara nor Angad felt that Rama erred.	A public figure might not be a specialist but he must be a visionary!
22.	Vaidyanath – the nath of doctors	He can live without Sita but doesn't without Lakshman	Krishna is a great motivator

23.		Kumbhakaran knew the truth that Vibhishana is in the right party.	Long term strategies in the life of Krishna – marriage of Arjun with sister, building capital in Dwarka etc.
24.		Ram is always with Sita and all the family members.	Harbinger of New values!
25.		Raw warrior vs Cultured Soldier	A person must think about the national issues, international issues etc. or else he is no one!
26.		Uprightness and amicability	A national vision therefore, choose pandavas. All others (in map) were wicked or allies of Dhratarashtra.
27.			Made bhima to kill jarasandha ? long strategy Stopped yadavas to participate in the swayamvar of draupadi, why? Why create a trap and kill jayadhratha?
28.			Never fall in emotional traps
29.			Krishna as an emissary
30.			Shishupala never says Krishna is a womanizer.
31.			Sama, dana, Bhed, Danda
32.			Uses trickery in the war
33.			Cries with dhritarashtra and Gandhari?

Learn from the ideals to tackle your day to day struggles!
